Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant's amendments have caused the new grounds of rejection, which is to say the newly added limitations make the scope of the present claims similar to those in US Patent 6,917,785 and now present double patenting issues; therefore this action is made final.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 14-15 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,917,785. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application include system limitations which directly correlate to the method limitations of the patented claim. The “grid opening size” in both claim 14 and 15 would have been obvious in light of the “quasi-static non-propagating field” limitation, as it is disclosed by applicant that this grid configuration is a necessary part of a system for creating a field which does not propagate as defined by applicant and which forms a “cavity resonator”. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to claim the necessary elements of a system to carry out the method of the patented claim.

Claims 16 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,917,785. High frequency would fall within the range claimed by applicant.

Claims 17 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,917,785. All of the alternatively claimed receiver means are known in the art of short-range communication. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to select from these types of receivers in order to function with current entertainment media.

Claims 18-19 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,917,785. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the application include system limitations which directly correlate to the method limitations of the patented claim. The “grid opening size” in both claim 14 and 15 would have been obvious in light of the “quasi-static non-propagating field” limitation, as it is disclosed by applicant that this grid configuration is a necessary part of a system for creating a field which does not propagate as defined by applicant as defined by applicant and which forms a “cavity resonator". Also, high frequency would fall within the range claimed by applicant. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to claim the necessary elements of a system to carry out the method of the patented claim

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
